receiving ten years' imprisonment. The others left the country.

Western Gilbert took an appeal to the supreme court, which affirmed the decision of the lower court and recommended the defendant to the mercy of Governor Taylor, who commuted his sentence to life imprisonment. Lewis Gilbert succeeded in securing a new trial. Subsequently Dick Green, Link Green, J. H. Green, Dan Green and Patton Ferguson were attacked by the other side. Anderson Green was killed and some time afterward John Drinnon was shot and killed by Brown Low Pearson. Drinnon died of the wound. Still the war goes on.

The Fruit of Violence.

In no case is the folly of violence in medicine more conspicuously shown by its fruit than in the effect upon the intestines of excessive purgation. The stomach and bowels are first painfully gripped, then the latter are emptied, and the patient is left exhausted. This is far beyond the necessities of the case, most unnatural, excessively debilitating. The organs are incapacitated from resuming their function with normal moderation. An astringent is resorted to which reduces them to their former condition of inaction. To this monstrous and harmful absurdity, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the happy alternative. It relaxes gently, naturally, sufficiently, it diverts bile from the blood into its proper channel, it invigorates healthy action and complete assimilation. It is a complete defense against malaria, and conquers rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness, kidney and bladder trouble.

CHAMPION STILL.

Sullivan is a Heart Smasher—He Will be a Co-respondent in Divorce Proceedings.

(Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.)

Syracuse, Nov. 6.—The sporting fraternity and people here generally were much interested yesterday in the announcement that Louis N. Drinkwine, proprietor of the barber shop in Hotel Conde, has brought suit for divorce from his wife and that John L. Sullivan, of Boston, was to be made one of the co-respondents. It is alleged Sullivan and Mrs. Drinkwine visited a prominent road house at Centerville, near here, four weeks ago when the champion and his combination came to Syracuse. Drinkwine learned of his wife's alleged indiscretion, and it resulted in her leaving him. She took up her quarters at the Hotel Conde, where Sullivan was entertained part of the time during his stay here, being an intimate friend of the proprietor, T. S. Grady, well known in sporting circles. Mr. and Mrs. Drinkwine were married here about nine years ago, both coming from good families. A son, seven years old, was born to them. They have not lived happily for two years or more. They separated about five months ago as the result, according to the attorney for Drinkwine, of the relations discovered between his wife and a New York man, whose name was formerly in this city. Drinkwine, however, received his wife into his home again, only to separate from her once more after Sullivan's visit to Syracuse.

Mrs. Drinkwine herself and Sullivan's friends in this city deny the story of any intimacy. She says, however, she has sufficient cause for leaving her husband, and does not intend to return. Mr. Drinkwine is a possessing blade, of good figure, and is attractive both in face and figure. He is apparently a well-to-do man. Her parents are prominent people. They are completely crushed by the notoriety and alleged indiscretions of their daughter. It is reported the marriage was a Syracuse business man may be put into Drinkwine's complaint.

THE DARK AND BLOODY GROUND. The "War" in Kentucky Between the Jones and Greene Factions—The Dead List.

(Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.)

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 6.—Late developments in the war between the Jones and Greene families, in Hancock county, are of more than ordinary interest. Up to date six lives have been lost, two men are maimed for life, two have been sentenced to imprisonment for ten years, and one to imprisonment for life. The latter is Western Gilbert, one of the Greene faction, who was sentenced to be hanged this month, but was saved from the gallows, was yesterday placed in the state prison in this city. He is only eighteen years of age. Advice from the seat of war in Hancock county, are that Hamp Greene, who, a day or two ago, shot and killed James (Greene), a relative, but arrested, on the spot, the opposing faction, has fled, and that his chase is being made by the forces with which James Greene operated before his death. Hamp Greene's friends are it is thought, consulting him. Should the two factions meet while well armed, the results would be of an exciting character.

The trouble between the Jones and Greene factions originated two years ago in a dispute about boys. James Jones was shot and killed by Richard Greene. Subsequently Asa Jones, father of the victim, James Pratt and Lewis Gilbert, had a fight with Richard Greene, Link Greene and Thomas Greene, all brothers. Thomas Greene was shot in the left arm and hand. He was amputated. It was not long and another fight occurred. Joel Greene and Harvey Pratt were on War creek when the Greene party fired upon them. Greene's right arm was shattered. One week later seven of the Jones' faction were at War Creek church when John Devoit made his appearance. They accused him of sedition as he fired upon him and killing him. Several men were arrested for the murder of Devoit and two of them were found guilty. Gilbert being sentenced to death and a brother of Louis Gilbert's receiving ten years' imprisonment. The others left the country.

Western Gilbert took an appeal to the supreme court, which affirmed the decision of the lower court and recommended the defendant to the mercy of Governor Taylor, who commuted his sentence to life imprisonment.
